

Dear Parent,

Rock Solid Character is coming to your child's school on _____ to present a positive character lesson entitled, "The 7 Handholds of Success." With your permission your child can interact with this lesson by having the chance to climb a portable rock-climbing wall. Trained personnel are on hand to provide an enriching and safe climbing experience. We bring UIAA approved safety climbing harnesses, attach your child to OSHA approved safety belay devices, and provide foam mats at the base of the rock. We check and double-check each participant prior to the climb. Obviously, risks are inherent with this type activity, but every possible measure has been taken to minimize the risk. Also, this is purely voluntary. We operate by a strict "Challenge by Choice" philosophy. This allows every participant the right to make personal choices of whether or not to participate, how high to climb, and when to come down. Our staff only encourages and never forces participation. For more information about the lesson, the rock, and us, see our web-site at www.RockSolid-Character.com. Please sign on the space provided to allow your child to participate. Photos or comments may be used for print/advertising materials. Have your child return this permission form to his/her teacher.

Child's Name: _____ (Please Print)

Parent or Guardian's Signature: _____ Date: _____

(Proper clothing is required: jeans, pants, shorts and tennis shoes. Avoid dresses, skirts, dress shoes and sandals.)
